

Rescheduled Household Hazardous Waste Event

April 2020

Due to the COVID-19 virus, the DKMM Solid Waste District rescheduled the April 25th Household Hazardous Waste and Paint event to August 15th and canceled the May 16th event. The June 6th and August 22nd special collection events are currently still considered on schedule.

As further developments occur, the situation will be monitored and schedule changes may be made as appropriate. For a list of Special Collection events, please click here. Please be sure to check the news feed on the DKMM.org website closer to each date for any changes to the event schedule.
